SYNOPSIS OF COAL MINING REGULATIONS

Coal mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the Northwest Territories and British Columbia, are leased for a term of twenty years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 250 acres will be leased to one applicant.
Application for a lease must be made to the Agent or sub-agent of the district in which the lease is wanted for the district.
The leased territory (the land must be described by sections, or local subdivisions of sections, and in numbered territory the tract applied for shall be stated out.) Such application must be accompanied by a fee of $5, which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available but not otherwise.
A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.
Every Lessee of coal mining rights which are not being operated shall furnish the district Agent of Dominion Lands with a sworn statement to that effect at least once in each year.
The lease will include the coal mining rights only, but the lessee may be permitted to surround whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10 an acre.
For full information, application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.
W. W. Cory,
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

CRAMPED DAYS WITHOUT FOOD

SATURDAY IS A HUNGRY DAY THAT PROSPER FOR A PALE DAY.

BIG SNOWSHOE FEAT

Hundred of Miles Over the Snowshoe Pass through Mountains—and three days on the ice of the coast and had no mishaps.

Always when it is proposed to build a new railroad through the mountains a lot of arduous labor falls to the lot of some one in finding the route which to the greatest extent possible, communes shortness and easy gradients save the idea of what men sometimes get through to enable a corporation to carry out its plans, may be had from the experience of Walter Gardner of Frank who put in the better part of the past winter prospecting a railroad route through the main range of the Rockies between the Crow North and the main line of the C.P.R.

Mr. Gardner has been the past two years in the employ of the Kananaskis River, L. & N. syndicate who are the promoters of the Northwestern Coal company which has immense coal tracts on the Livingston river and the Northern Coal company which has large holdings on the upper Elk in British Columbia. They also have a charter for a railroad from Butte Mont., running north up through Alberta to Calgary and on to the north. It is their desire to connect their coal properties on either side of the main range by rail. Mr.
Gardner has had charge of the prospecting work for his people and it falls to him to make an examination of the mountains which would enable engineers to lay out the roads it is proposed to build, with the least possible loss of time.

Mr. Gardner left "The Gap," a point about twenty-five miles due north of Frank in the Livingston mountains, early in January on his first trip. Since that time he has traveled hundreds of miles on snow shoes, alone and carrying his blankets and grub supply in a pack on his back and has examined every break in the main range as far north as the Kananaskis river which might possibly afford a pass for a railroad.

On one occasion Mr. Gardner was out sixteen days. During the period, the cold and weather of the Alberta winter came and he endured hardships, calculated, one would think, to spoil even the hardest of mountaineers.
While on this particular trip, he one day reached a point where he thought he was within striking distance of Aldrich creek, B.C. where he had a supply of provisions cached.
As his grub was low he decided to strike over the range and obtain a supply. Believing he could make the trip in a day he left his load behind, taking only a lunch. He climbed all day but did not reach the summit and was obliged to camp for the night. He had only saved from his lunch a half a slice of bread and as a fierce storm had come on by then there was no telling what was in store for him, he decided to save the grub. He fasted that night, sitting by his fire all night to keep warm. The next day the storm was still on and he struck out. About about noon he decided he had reached the brink of bread and believing he would make camp that night, ate it.
But the storm again caused his calculations to miscarry and he did not reach Aldrich creek until the best part of the third day had passed. He spent three days in camp, feasting and resting and then struck back over the range, with a fresh supply of grub, recovered his blankets and continued until he had finished the undertaking he had set out upon.
During all the time Mr. Gardner was out, he slept entirely in the open except as to the time spent at the Aldrich creek camp and although the very coldest weather of the winter prevailed in the meantime, he never froze any part of him except on one occasion when the eye was slightly

A. N. REDUCES COAL RATE

The local traffic department of the Great Northern announced yesterday that the company had given legal notice for the publication of a rate of $2.25 a ton on coal shipped by way of the Forde-Michel extension and Newport to points on the Idaho & Washington Northern railroad says the Spokesman-Bell.

The new rate, which will be effective in about 40 days, will reduce the present rate about 35 cents a ton in the territory affected.

The present rate from the mines to Newport is $2.15 and a local rate of approximately 50 cents is charged by the Idaho & Washington Northern.

A HEAVEN ON EARTH

This newspaper walk, without a tag of identification, is going the rounds of the city and went to heaven, as a man would, but it was noticed by the angels that he was not particularly well pleased with the place, the calm, still beauty around him, and he hinted mildly that heaven wasn't so many.

Finally, while wandering along the outer edge, he got a glimpse of a familiar angel sitting on the edge of a beautiful fountain, who, like him, were a longing, wearisome look on his face and wings drooping in dejection. "Oh, ah!" said the first angel, "I find another disaffected soul here. From whose corner thou friend?" The shade on the fountain looked up sadly and answered:
"Alas! I was very happy once.
I lived in the greatest, grandest beautiful place in all the universe, but death came upon me and now one day, and forever, I am here.
I am a lost, sad, wretched soul. When he died, the first angel grasped his hand saying: "Brother, I sympathize with you and fully appreciate your dejection. I, too, am from Sunny Alberta." And they fell upon each other's necks and wept bitter tears.

COLEMAN NEWS

Mrs. Dr. Westwood left last week on a visit to her children in Europe.
A lodge of the Knights of Pythias was organized at Coleman last evening.

Frank Graham is building a new business place on the main street to be occupied by Park's drug store.

The recently organized lodge of the I.O.O.F. is fitting up of the new hall as a lodge room.

C. E. Baker and Barney Stitt went to Macleod Friday to attend a session of court.

Many hundreds of cords of wood are piled up on the coke ovens ready for lighting the ovens which is expected to take place in the near future.

Coleman's new paper is to be known as the Coleman Mirror. H. S.
French, the proprietor has his building completed and the plant in and expects to issue the first number this week or next.

Inspector Belcher was up yesterday to try a case against Proprietor Morton of the Coleman hotel on a charge of fighting and another charge laid by Inspector Whitliff based on the fact that a dog kennel is kept in the hotel and that the premises are un-cleanly. The first charge was the outgrowth of a fight between Morton and Campbell McPherson some days ago in which both men fought ferociously for about fifteen minutes.
The cases were remanded a week.

touched with frost while he slept.

Mr. Gardner's labor resulted in the discovery of an entirely new pass through the main range of which nothing had ever been previously known which is feasible for a railroad at very moderate grade.

Mr. Gardner declined to give any further information relative to railroad building plans in which his people may be interested but stated that he thought the year would see much activity in that line.

THEY KILLED THE BOB CAT

FARMER FURNISHED LIVESTOCK
FOR A NORTHERN HARBOR.

EXCITING ENCOUNTER

Being a Chronicle of the Thrilling Experiences of a Rancher of the Livingstone Mountains and his Family with a Wild Cat.

This is a chronicle of the experiences of a rancher in the Livingston mountains and his family with a bob cat.

The rancher in question lives about as far up in the Livingstones as it is possible to get and farm. Game of all kinds is plentiful in that region.
One morning during the past winter the rancher heard a commotion in the barn and went out to investigate. He knew a lot of Belgian hares and in the stable he found a bunch of them doing a merry-go-round with a bob cat taking a prominent part in the game.

The rancher had a pitch fork in his hand but it did not occur to him to use it. To get the gun was his first thought. Dropping the fork he made a break for his house to get the rifle.
At the stable door he dropped his miss. On the way to the house he shed, first his coat, then a muffler he wore around his neck and lastly three of his hat. He knew he was in for a chase, as he explained afterward, and he wanted to be free to run some.

As the rancher disappeared into the house, his daughter, a fourteen year old girl, came running out, crying of the building and seeing the various articles of her father's wearing apparel distributed along the path to the stable, thought something unusual was up and went to investigate.
She met the cat in the stable door.
Either she was not as excited as her father or her ideas of the way to dispatch a bob cat were not the same for she grabbed the pitch fork and suddenly into the cat. She soon put it to flight and it dodged out the door.
There a couple of hours took up the chase and soon had the animal tired, by this time the father had the gun loaded and was out again. This followed a rare exhibition of marksmanship.

A friend staying with the family, wishing to have sport with the old man when he went rabbit hunting, had risen the sights of the rifle and although the rancher was only a few yards from the cat, he fired and fired but could not bring the varmint down. He tried every manner of holding the gun but to no avail.
Finally he laid down on his back and putting one foot on top of the other, rested the muzzle of the gun on the top of his foot. He declared he had at last found the way to hold the weapon steady and called on all hands to witness the demise of that cat.

The friend begged the old man's foot just as he was about to fire. The gun slipped off the toe with the remarkable result that the cat tumbled out of the tree, dead.

The old gentleman has learned of the trick played on him and as he does not greatly relish the idea of other people having fun at his expense you will be wise if you neglect to speak of that cat affair when you go fishing up at "The Gap" this summer.

Government Buys Bell System.

A Montreal dispatch states that Minister of Public Works Outing has been successful in his negotiations for the purchase of the Bell telephone system in this province and that the deal has been closed. The price paid was $775,000. The Bell people asked $750,000 but Mr. Outing secured a reduction of $75,000, and as he states, considers he has made a good bargain. Mr. Outing at once telegraphed the government telephone officials at Edmonton to take charge of the system which was done Tuesday at midnight.

WILL CANCEL WOLF BOUNTY

In another column will be noticed an advertisement of the Department of Agriculture giving notice of the cancellation of the wolf bounty after April 20th. In advising The Frank Paper on the subject the deputy minister says:

Since the adoption of the present regulations, providing for the payment of bounty on wolves, the sum of $21,074.40 has been paid to persons applying for bounty. Of this $1,628.70 was paid during the year 1907 and the balance $17,045.70 since January last of the present year.

Warrants are now being received at the rate of two hundred and fifty dollars per day, which means that the $20,000 voted by the legislature for this purpose will be exhausted early in April.

As it is deemed inadvisable to unduly exceed the amount voted for this purpose, all Wolf Bounty inspectors have been instructed to cease issuing warrants after the twentieth day of April, 1908.

Thus far one thousand acres of the land that will be included in the transit of Prince Rupert has been cleared by contractors, who were paid at the rate of $120 an acre. The contractors employing white labor paid fair wages and are reported to have made fair profits for themselves. One of them who engaged Japanese labor is said to have lost money.

Minister of Public Works Cushing left last week for Montreal where he will endeavor to negotiate a purchase of the Bell telephone lines in the province. The government would prefer buying the Bell people to build ing parallel lines if a fair price can be agreed upon.

A letter received here yesterday conveys the information that S. W. Gabe and Mr. Liepert have reached New York and are now on their way across the continent. Some persons professing to be advised think they will arrive in Frank this week, while others are under the impression they will not reach here before the 15th.

Yesterday was All Pools Day and the youngsters indulged in the usual pranks fooling the "big ones".

Mrs. McPherson of Hilebert is critically ill at Dr. Macleod's hospital.

A Rice returned yesterday morning from a trip into the Flathead country.

Alex Beck, formerly of Coleman but now a resident of Blairmore, visited the district during the week.

The board of trade supper which was to have been given next Monday evening has been postponed for the time being.

Mrs. McMeekin's millinery opening which commenced Friday last, has proven a great success. Her display of spring millinery is particularly this season.

The big coal strike in the states which has long been anticipated, went into effect yesterday. It embraces nearly all the coal mines in the central and eastern states and over a quarter of a million of men are out.

A news dispatch from North York, Wash., states that Cyrus C. Ponzio who was quite well known in this district, committed suicide near that place recently by shooting himself with a shot gun. Dependence was the cause.

Louis St. Onge, general manager of the Pacific Coal company of Bankhead and who also directs the working of the C.P.R. mine at Houser, has moved to Houser to enable him to keep in closer touch with the work there.

The C.P.R. has issued its summer schedule for the main line but no new schedule has yet appeared for the Great West line. According to the new card, it is figured out that the western of Soo-Spokane river will reach Frank camp where in the neighborhood of 11 o'clock in the evening and the eastbound about 3 o'clock in the morning.

Capt. Beebe of the Blairmore opera house has secured The Minstrel Maids for next Monday evening. The western of Soo-Spokane river has been playing in the west and has received nothing but commendation from the newspapers, indicating that it will doubtless be one of the best attractions of this season. The company is under the management of the Juvenile Beethoven, so popular in this district, which is another recommendation for it.
